Dear Mary:

I have your letter of March 29, 1965, advising me of Mrs. Lillian Taylor's death. Inasmuch as I am not very well acquainted with the people in this area, I would prefer that someone else take the lead. It may be that we should send a letter or card, or do something else, in the name of the Southeastern Chapter. If we send something requiring a signature, it seems to me that the instrument might be more favorably received if signed by the President, Vice President and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Southeastern Chapter. I assume we have no committee to handle such matters, therefore, would you please take the lead. I further assume that Pearl Von Allmen, our Secretary-Treasurer, is the one to report this death to the Law Library Journal.

Please let me know of your reaction to these suggestions.

Yours very truly,

U. V. Jones
